Invitation to conference
„Ensuring Food Security: Estonia, Europe, the World“
(Rural and agricultural development after 2013)
15 June 2011, in Tartu (Estonia)

Jäeneda, 4 May 2011

Dear colleagues,

Estonian Rural Economy Research Centre is organizing in a close cooperation with the Estonian Ministry of Agriculture and the Estonian University of Life Sciences a conference "Ensuring Food Security: Estonia, Europe, the World" (in the context of CAP future).

The objective of the conference is to give an overview of live rural and agricultural policy developments, particularly of the new challenges the European Union and the world have to face, and to improve the dialogue between rural entrepreneurs/agricultural producers and politicians. The intention is to open the subject of the future of the EU Common Agricultural Policy and food security as widely as possible. Therefore, representatives of different countries have been invited to take the floor at the conference.

Rural Economy Research Centre, The Department of Rural and Fisheries Network would like to invite you to attend the conference on CAP future:

Date: 15th of June 2011

Time: opening 9.30, closing 17:30

Venue: Tartu (Dorpat Conference Centre, <http://www.dorpat.ee/Conference>)

We also kindly invite you to participate in a prologue of the conference that will take place on 14th of June. This is a seminar on the development of Estonian rural economy, where will be introduced several different studies done by Institute of Economics and Social Sciences of the Estonian University of Life Sciences. More information and preliminary agenda is available on our website www.maainfo.ee/CAPconference2011 (follow the link on the website).

Date: 14th of June 2011

Time: opening 12.30, closing 17:00

Venue: Estonian University of Life Sciences in Tartu (Kreutzwaldi 1)

If you would like to participate please registrate before the 31st May 2011 on-line www.maainfo.ee/CAPconference2011. If you have questions please contact Reve Lambur, email reve@maainfo.ee, tel +372 529 8009

Yours faithfully,
