

Maaelu Arengu Euroopa
Põllumajandusfond:
Euroopa investeringud
maapiirkondadesse

Forestry Workshop on

Forest owners' cooperation and the EU rural development policy – a potential to enhance rural development

Time: 13th of September 2012 at 9-15

Place: Rural Economy Research Centre (Estonian NRN) in Jäneda, Estonia

DRAFT PROGRAMME:

Wednesday, 12th September – participants arrival to Jäneda (transfers from Tallinn are organised) – dinner and accommodation

Thursday, 13th September

9.00 – 15.00 Workshop

Morning session, 9.00 – 12.00

- Overview of European Network for Rural Development (ENRD) recent activities in forestry initiative - Danilo Marandola Ph.D, INEA Forest Observatory, National Institute of Agricultural Economics, IT
- Cooperation in timber harvesting and marketing based on the experiences of the “United Forest Owners” – Mr. Mikk Link, manager, Lääne County Forestry Association, EST
- The development of support measures to improve forest owners associations – Mr. Jaanus Aun, board member, Foundation Private Forest Centre, EST
- Forest owners cooperation in Italy – Danilo Marandola, IT
- Experiences from other countries on bioenergy and cooperation (TBC)
- The development of the rural development policy and initiatives to improve the inclusion of forest owners cooperation - Mr. Priit Põllumäe, project manager, Estonian Private Forest Union, EST

Lunch

Afternoon session, 13.00 – 15.00:

- The financial perspectives of the rural development programming period 2014-2020 (European Commission representative - TBC)
- Workshops

15.00 – 19.00 study tour (or possible to leave at 3 p.m, bus transfer to Tallinn is organised)

20.00 – dinner and social evening (or possible to leave to Tallinn at 7 p.m, bus transfer to Tallinn is organised)

Friday, 14th September

10.00 – 16.00 International conference “Wood for energy production”

16.30 Bus transfer from Jäneda to Tallinn

17.30 Arrival to Tallinn