

2nd European Periurban LEADER Meeting

ALCOCHETE, 2 AND 3 DECEMBER 2010

Information guide for participants

This document seeks to give practical information about the logistical arrangements for transport, accommodation and meals. The guide is organised chronologically and describes the services that ADREPES will make available during your stay in the Setúbal Peninsula to ensure your stay is as comfortable as possible.

Transport

1 December - three transfers have been arranged at different times (morning, afternoon and evening), departing from Lisbon Airport and leaving you at the hotels indicated below.

2 and 3 December - transport is available for participants who opt for the hotels with transfer to take them to the Alcochete Cultural Forum in the morning and to return them to their hotels in the afternoon.

Transport for the visits is available for all participants who have signed up.

2 December, evening – transport is provided from the hotels indicated to and from the venue where the gala dinner will be held.

3 December – a minibus (max. 20 places) will be available to take those registered to Lisbon Airport after the close of the event (approximately 17h30).

Hotel reservations are the responsibility of each participant. We suggest that reservations should be made as soon as possible due to limited number of bedrooms available. Please identify yourself as participant of the seminar when making the hotel reservation.

Meals

Lunch and dinner on 2 December and lunch on 3 December are included in the programme and offered by the event organisers. Registration is compulsory, though.
