

EIP IMPLEMENTATION IN POLAND

– RESEARCH PERSPECTIVE

Monika Rzepecka
Ministry of Science and Higher Education

National Program of Research

- National Program of Research (August 2011) –base for national research and innovation policy in the perspective of 10-15 years
 - 7 strategic, interdisciplinary areas of research (energy, health, IT, agriculture, environment, defence, society)
 - strategic programs for research and development – priorities in a medium-term perspective 5-7 years
 - Strategic program for research and development in the area of natural environment, agriculture and forestry

Strategic program for research and development in the area of natural environment, agriculture and forestry

- accepted in December 2013 by the Ministry of Science and Higher Education
- 5 strategic areas:
 - food security and food safety
 - rational usage of natural resources
 - mitigation and climate adaptation
 - protection of biodiversity
 - forestry and wood industry

Strategic program for research and development in the area of natural environment, agriculture and forestry

- managed by agency financing research (the National Centre for Research and Development – NCRD)
- emphasis on projects demanding collaboration research - industry
- the Steering Committee appointed previous week and will take decision concerning potential links with EIP
- NCRD responsible for structural funds

Strategic program for research and development in the area of natural environment, agriculture and forestry

- the base for PL participation in EU initiatives
- NCRD responsible for managing all ERA Nets in PL
- ERA NET Cofund Sustainable and resilient agriculture for food and non-food systems proposed in the framework of JPI FACCE (Food, agriculture and climate change) in WP H2020 for 2015
- PPP biobased industries